Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 15, 2017, Steven Ibbotson submitted his resignation from the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Liberty Tax, Inc. (the “Company”), effective immediately. Mr. Ibbotson served as the chair of the Compensation Committee and as a member of the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of the Company.

In a letter to the Board and Company management, dated December 15, 2017, Mr. Ibbotson indicated that his decision to resign was a result of his concerns with the actions of John T. Hewitt, the Chairman of the Board and former Chief Executive Officer of the Company, as a result of his rights as the sole holder of the Class B common stock and voting control at the Board level. The foregoing description of this letter is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the letter, a copy of which is filed herewith as Exhibit 17.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

To the Board of Directors and Management:

I hereby resign, effective immediately, from the Board of Directors of Liberty Tax, Inc. I made the decision to resign because I materially disagree with certain aspects of how the Company is being managed by Mr. Hewitt as a result of his rights as the sole holder of the Class B common stock and voting control at the board level. Despite my best efforts, I no longer believe that I can have a meaningful influence on the management of the company, and accordingly, I no longer believe that I can be an effective member of the Board of Directors in serving the interests of shareholders and therefore am compelled to resign.

Sincerely,

/s/ Steven Ibbotson
