JTH HOLDING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

(1) Organization and Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Organization

JTH Holding, Inc. (the Company), a Delaware corporation, is a holding company engaged through its subsidiaries as a franchisor and operator of a system of income tax preparation offices located in the United States and Canada. The Company's principal operations are conducted through JTH Tax, Inc. (d/b/a Liberty Tax Service) the Company's largest subsidiary. Through this system of income tax preparation offices, the Company also facilitates to its customers refund-based tax settlement financial products such as refund anticipation loans, electronic refund checks, and personal income tax refund discounting. The Company also offers online tax preparation services.

Unless specifically noted otherwise, as used throughout these condensed consolidated financial statements, the term "Company" or "Liberty" refers to the consolidated entities of JTH Holding, Inc. and JTH Tax, Inc.

(b) Principles of Consolidation and Unaudited Financial Statements

The condensed consolidated financial statements include the accounts of JTH Holding, Inc. and its wholly owned subsidiaries. Assets and liabilities of the Company's Canadian operations have been translated into U.S. dollars using the exchange rate in effect at the end of the period. Revenues and expenses have been translated using the average exchange rates in effect each month of the period. Transaction gains and losses are recognized in income when incurred. The Company also consolidates any variable interest entities of which it is the primary beneficiary. When the Company does not have a controlling interest in an entity, but exerts significant influence over the entity, the Company applies the equity method of accounting. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation.

The unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (US GAAP) for interim financial information. The condensed consolidated financial statements, including these notes, are unaudited and exclude some of the disclosures required in annual financial statements. Consolidated balance sheet data as of April 30, 2012 was derived from the Company's April 30, 2012 Annual Report to Shareholders on Form 10-K.

In the opinion of management, all adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of such financial statements in accordance with US GAAP have been recorded. Such adjustments consisted only of normal recurring items. The accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements and notes thereto included in its April 30, 2012 Annual Report to Shareholders on Form 10-K.

(c) Use of Estimates

Management has made a number of estimates and assumptions relating to the reporting of assets and liabilities, and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the condensed consolidated financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period, to prepare these condensed consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes in conformity with US GAAP. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

(d) Recently Issued Accounting Standards

In June 2011, Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Accounting Standards Update ("ASU") 2011-05, Presentation of Comprehensive Income. This update changes the methods for presenting comprehensive income, and eliminates the method of including comprehensive income in the statement of stockholders' equity. Under ASU 2011-05, an entity has the option to present the total of comprehensive income, the components of net income, and the components of other comprehensive income either in a single continuous statement of comprehensive income or in two separate but consecutive statements. The amendments in this ASU did not change the items that must be reported in other comprehensive income or when an item of other comprehensive income must be reclassified to net income. The Company adopted this guidance in the first quarter of fiscal 2013. Because it only affects presentation, this guidance did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

JTH HOLDING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

In September 2011, FASB issued ASU 2011-08, Intangibles-Goodwill and Other (ASC Topic 350): Testing Goodwill for Impairment. This amendment provides the option of first using a qualitative assessment to determine whether it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. If a company concludes that it is more likely than not that fair value exceeds carrying value, the two-step test for impairment is not required. The amendment includes a revised list of considerations in completing the qualitative assessment. The Company adopted this ASU in fiscal 2013 but this guidance did not have a material effect on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

(e) Foreign Operations

Canadian operations contributed $295,000 and $781,000 in revenues for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012, respectively, and $325,000 and $931,000 in revenues for the three and six months ended October 31, 2011, respectively.

(f) Supplier Concentration

The Company has used a third-party financial institution to provide certain financial products to its customers, pursuant to an agreement that was scheduled to expire on October 16, 2014. For the year ended April 30, 2012, a significant portion of the Company's customer's financial products were provided by this financial institution. On August 27, 2012, the Company delivered a termination notice with respect to that agreement that became effective September 16, 2012. The Company believes there will be little impact on its customers because the Company can offer similar financial products through contractual relationships with other third-parties and internal capabilities.

(g) Seasonality of Business

The Company's operating revenues are seasonal in nature with peak revenues occurring in the months of January through April. Therefore, results for interim periods are not indicative of results to be expected for the full year.

(2) Notes and Accounts Receivable

The Company provides financing to franchisees for the purchase of franchises, clusters of territories, company-owned offices and/or for working capital and equipment needs. The franchise-related notes generally are payable over five years and the working capital and equipment notes generally are due within one year. All notes bear interest at 12%. Activity related to notes receivable for the six months ended October 31, 2012 and the year ended April 30, 2012 is as follows:

JTH HOLDING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

	October 31, 2012	April 30, 2012
	(In thousands)
Balance at beginning of period	$ 79,838	$ 70,564
Notes received for:
Sales of franchises and clusters of territories	2,245	8,131
Sales of certain assets to franchisees	7,466	12,554
Franchisee to franchisee note assumptions	5,039	7,439
Working capital and equipment loans to franchisees	20,855	67,969
Refinancing of accounts receivable	16,036	16,787
	51,641	112,880
Repayment of notes	(4,533)	(82,258)
Notes canceled	(12,648)	(21,188)
Foreign currency adjustment	(117)	(160)
Balance at end of period	$ 114,181	$ 79,838

All of the notes receivable are due from the Company's franchisees and are collateralized by the underlying franchise and are guaranteed by the respective franchisee and franchise owner(s). The franchisees' ability to repay the notes is dependent upon both the performance of the tax preparation industry as a whole and the individual franchise. Notes and accounts receivable include royalties billed and loans to franchisees for franchise fees that relate to territories located in area developers' territories. The Company has recorded amounts payable to area developers for their share of these receivables of $15,680,000 and $21,893,000 at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, respectively.

Activity in the allowance for doubtful accounts for the six months ended October 31, 2012, and 2011 is as follows:

	2012	2011
Beginning balance	$ 7,130	$ 6,835
Additions charged to expense	2,914	2,391
Provision for franchise fee refunds	388	515
Write-offs	(3,065)	(2,879)
Foreign currency adjustment	(30)	(73)
Ending balance	$ 7,337	$ 6,789

Management considers accounts and notes receivable to be impaired if the amounts due exceed the fair value of the underlying franchise and estimates an allowance for doubtful accounts based on that excess. Amounts due include the recorded value of the accounts and notes receivable reduced by the allowance for uncollected interest, amounts due to area developers, the related deferred revenue and amounts owed to the franchisee by the Company. In establishing the fair value of the underlying franchise, management considers net fees of open offices and the number of unopened offices.

For accounts and notes receivable not impaired, management determines the allowance for doubtful accounts based on an estimate of expected refunds of the initial franchise fee, taking into consideration the number of unopened offices.

JTH HOLDING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

Management believes that the recorded allowance is adequate based upon its consideration of the estimated value of the franchises supporting the receivables. Any adverse change in the tax preparation industry could affect the Company's estimate of the allowance.

The allowance for doubtful accounts at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012 is allocated as follows:

	October 31, 2012	April 30, 2012
(In thousands)
Impaired:
Notes receivable	$ 7,479	$ 9,775
Accounts receivable	3,026	4,699

Net amount due	$ 8,476	$ 11,218
Allowance for doubtful accounts for impaired notes and accounts receivable	$ (4,372)	$ (5,831)
Non-impaired:
Notes receivable	112,865	72,540
Accounts receivable	11,869	34,935
Less allowance for uncollected interest, amounts due AD's, related deferred revenue and amounts due franchisees	(21,178)	(26,469)
Net amount due	$ 103,556	$ 81,006
Allowance for doubtful accounts for non-impaired notes and accounts receivable	$ (2,965)	$ (1,299)
Total allowance for doubtful accounts	$ (7,337)	$ (7,130)

The aging of accounts and notes receivable at October 31, 2012 is as follows:

	Total Past Due	Allowance for Uncollected Interest	Current	Total Receivables
(In thousands)
Accounts receivable	$ 13,266	$ (1,794)	$ 1,629	$ 13,101
Notes receivable	9,891	(1,143)	110,453	119,201
Total	$ 23,157	$ (2,937)	$ 112,082	$ 132,302

Accounts receivable are considered to be past due if unpaid after 30 days and notes receivable are considered past due if unpaid after 90 days, at which time the notes are put on nonaccrual status.

The Company's average investment in impaired notes receivable during the six months ended October 31, 2012 and 2011 was $8,627,000 and $7,984,000, respectively. Interest income related to impaired notes was $88,000 and $180,000 for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012, respectively, and $77,000 and $146,000 for the three and six months ended October 31, 2011, respectively. The Company's investment in notes receivable on nonaccrual status at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012 was $8,748,000 and $8,009,000, respectively.

JTH HOLDING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

At October 31, 2012 the Company has unfunded lending commitments for working capital loans to franchisees and area developers of $12,817,000.

(3) Investments

During the six months ended October 31, 2012, the Company purchased corporate equity securities, as a strategic investment in a business partner, for $2,980,000. This investment is included as other assets, net in the accompanying condensed consolidated balance sheets. At October 31, 2012, the fair value of the investment is $3,231,000. The Company classifies this investment as available-for-sale and recognizes unrealized gain on the available-for-sale securities, net of tax, in accumulated other comprehensive income in the stockholders' equity section of our balance sheets. The net unrealized gain on the available-for-sale securities at October 31, 2012 was $152,000.

(4) Other Intangible Assets

During the six months ended October 31, 2012, the Company acquired the assets of various franchisees for $4,088,000. These acquisitions were accounted for as business combinations, with all value allocated to the identifiable intangible assets. The acquired businesses are operated as Company-owned offices until a buyer is found.

(5) Leases

The Company is obligated under various short-term operating leases for office space that expire at various dates. Total rent expense for operating leases, net of subleases, was $832,000 and $1,474,000 for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012, respectively, and $607,000 and $1,038,000 for the three and six months ended October 31, 2011, respectively.

(6) Debt

The Company has a credit facility that consists of a $25,000,000 term loan and a $105,000,000 revolving credit facility, with an accordion feature permitting the Company to request an increase in availability of up to an additional $70,000,000. Outstanding borrowings accrue interest at one-month London Inter-Bank Offered Rate (LIBOR) plus a margin ranging from 1.50% to 2.25% depending on the Company's leverage ratio. At October 31, 2012, the interest rate was 1.84%. The indebtedness is collateralized by substantially all the assets of the Company and both loans expire on April 30, 2017. The credit facility contains certain financial covenants that the Company must meet, including leverage and fixed charge coverage ratios as well as minimum net worth requirements. The Company's borrowing availability under the credit facility at October 31, 2012 was $32.4 million. The Company was in compliance with the financial covenants of its credit facility at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012. Debt at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012 consisted of the following:

	October 31, 2012	April 30, 2012

(7) Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities

The Company uses interest-rate-related derivative financial instruments to manage its exposure related to changes in interest rates on its variable-rate credit facility, and forward contracts to manage its exposure to foreign currency fluctuation related to short-term advances made to its Canadian subsidiary. The Company does not speculate using derivative instruments nor does it enter into derivative instruments for any purpose other than cash flow hedging.

By using derivative financial instruments to hedge exposures to changes in interest rates, the Company exposes itself to credit risk and market risk. Credit risk is the failure of the counterparty to perform under the terms of the derivative contract. When the fair value of a derivative contract is positive, the counterparty owes the Company, which creates credit risk for the Company. When the fair value of a derivative contract is negative, the Company owes the counterparty, and therefore, the Company is not exposed to the counterparty's credit risk in those circumstances. The Company minimizes counterparty credit risk in derivative instruments by entering into transactions with high-quality counterparties. The derivative instruments entered into by the Company do not contain credit-risk-related contingent features.

Market risk is the adverse effect on the value of a derivative instrument that results from a change in interest rates. The market risk associated with interest rates is managed by establishing and monitoring parameters that limit the types and degree of market risk that may be undertaken.

The Company assesses interest rate risk by continually identifying and monitoring changes in interest rates that may adversely impact expected future cash flows and by evaluating hedging opportunities. The Company maintains risk management control systems to monitor interest rate risk attributable to both the Company's outstanding or forecasted debt obligations and forecasted revenues, as well as the Company's offsetting hedge positions. The risk management control systems involve the use of analytical techniques, including cash flow sensitivity analysis, to estimate the expected impact of changes in interest rates and foreign currency rates on the Company's future cash flows.

It is the policy of the Company to enter into forward contracts at the time short-term advances are made to its Canadian subsidiary.

Interest rate swap agreements: The Company has interest rate swap agreements with a financial institution to manage fluctuations in cash flows resulting from changes in the one-month LIBOR interest rate on its credit facility. These swaps effectively change the variable-rate of the credit facility into a fixed-rate loan. For the notional amounts, the Company receives a variable interest rate based on the one-month LIBOR and pays a fixed interest rate of 2.49% to 2.52%, depending on the agreement. The notional amounts of the interest rate swaps vary from $10,000,000 to $70,000,000 per month, in relation to the Company's forecasted seasonal borrowings. These interest rate swaps are designated as cash flow hedges. At October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, the fair value of interest rate swaps was a liability of $466,000 and $694,000, respectively, and was included in accounts payable and accrued expenses. During the six months ended October 31, 2012 and 2011, no amounts were recognized in the consolidated statements of income due to the ineffectiveness of these interest rate swaps.

Forward contracts related to foreign currency exchange rates: In connection with short-term advances made to its Canadian subsidiary related to personal income tax refund discounting, the Company enters into forward contracts to eliminate the exposure related to foreign currency fluctuations. Under the terms of the forward currency contracts, the exchange rate for repayments is fixed at the time an advance is made and the advances are repaid prior to April 30 of the year of the advance. These forward contracts are designated as cash flow hedges. At October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, there were no forward currency contracts outstanding. During the six months ended October 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company did not enter into any forward currency contracts.

At October 31, 2012, there are no deferred gains on derivative instruments accumulated in other comprehensive income that are expected to be reclassified to earnings during the next 12 months. There were no cash flow hedges discontinued during the six months ended October 31, 2012.

(8) Income Taxes

For the three and six months ended October 31, 2012, the Company recognized income tax benefits of $4,375,000 and $8,460,000, respectively. For the three and six months ended October 31, 2011, the Company recognized income tax benefits of $2,705,000 and $6,074,000, respectively. Total gross deferred tax liabilities were $21,990,000 and $17,878,000 at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, respectively. Total gross deferred tax assets were $4,924,000 and $4,387,000 at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, respectively.

The Company has determined no reserves for uncertain tax positions were required at October 31, 2012 or April 30, 2012.

(9) Stockholders' Equity

During the six months ended October 31, 2012 and 2011, activity in stockholders' equity was as follows:

	2012	2011
	(In thousands)
Class A common shares issued from the exercise of stock options	151	2
Proceeds from exercise of stock options	$ 1,592	$ 21
Class A common shares repurchased	103	149
Payments for repurchased shares	$ 1,413	$ 2,205
Tax benefit of stock option exercises	$ 269	$ 458
Class A common shares issued upon conversion of Class A preferred shares	1,703	—

(a) Loss per Share

Net loss per share of Class A and Class B common stock is computed using the two-class method. Basic net loss per share is computed by allocating undistributed earnings to common shares and participating securities (Class A preferred stock and exchangeable shares) and using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Undistributed losses are not allocated to these participating securities because they do not meet the required criteria for such allocation. During the six months ended October 31, 2012, two of the Company's major shareholders elected to convert 170,320 shares of the Class A preferred stock to 1,703,200 shares of Class A common stock. As a result of the conversion, 1,703,200 and 1,284,380 additional shares are included in the weighted-average number of Class A common shares used to calculate the loss per share for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012, respectively. If the Class A preferred stock had not been converted, these shares would not be included in the weighted-average number of Class A common shares used to calculate the loss per share for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012.

Diluted net loss per share is computed using the weighted-average number of common shares and, if dilutive, the potential common shares outstanding during the period. Potential common shares consist of the incremental common shares issuable upon the exercise of stock options. The dilutive effect of outstanding stock options is reflected in diluted earnings per share by application of the treasury stock method. Additionally, the computation of the diluted net loss per share of Class A common stock assumes the conversion of Class B common stock, Class A preferred stock and exchangeable shares, while the diluted net loss per share of Class B common stock does not assume conversion of those shares.

The rights, including liquidation and dividends rights, of the holders of Class A and Class B common stock are identical, with the exception of voting. As a result, the undistributed earnings for each year are allocated based on the contractual participation rights of the Class A and Class B common stock as if the earnings for the year had been distributed. Participating securities have dividend rights that are identical to Class A and Class B common stock.

October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

The computation of basic and diluted net loss per share for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012 and 2011 is as follows:

	Three Months Ended October 31, 2012
	Class A Common Stock	Class B Common Stock

As a result of the net losses for the periods, diluted net loss per share excludes the impact of shares of potential common stock from the exercise of options to purchase 2,760,000 shares and 2,769,000 shares for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012, respectively, because the effect would be antidilutive.

All of the stock options granted during the six months ended October 31, 2012 were granted to employees of the Company, except for 43,000 options granted to nonemployee directors.

The total intrinsic value of options exercised during the six months ended October 31, 2012 was approximately $667,000.

Nonvested stock option (options that did not vest in the period in which granted) activity during the six months ended October 31, 2012 is as follows:

	Nonvested options	Weighted average exercise price

(b) Restricted Stock Units

During the six months ended October 31, 2012, the Company awarded 15,971 shares of restricted stock units to its non-employee directors. The weighted average fair value at grant date was $13.50 and the vesting or service period is between 16-18 months. Compensation costs associated with these restricted shares are amortized over the service period and recognized as an increase in additional paid-in capital.

(11) Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The Company uses the following methods and assumptions to estimate the fair value of financial instruments.

Cash equivalents, receivables, other current assets, accounts payable and accrued expenses, and due to area developers: The carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of these instruments. At October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012 the Company had cash equivalents of:

	October 31, 2012	April 30, 2012
	(In thousands)
Money market account	$ —	$ 18,848

Notes receivable: The carrying amount of the Company's notes receivable approximates fair value based upon the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the interest rate currently offered by the Company, which approximates rates currently offered by local lending institutions for loans of similar terms to individuals/entities with comparable credit risk.

Nonfinancial assets and liabilities: The fair value of customer lists is measured on a nonrecurring basis in the period that the Company deemed the assets impaired. Fair value is determined based on historical transactions involving sales of Company-owned offices.

Long-term debt: The carrying amount of the Company's long-term debt approximates fair value based on the present value of expected future cash flows discounted at the interest rates offered by the lenders, which approximates rates currently offered by local lending institutions for loans of similar terms to companies with comparable credit risk.

Concentrations of credit risks: Financial instruments that could potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks consist of accounts and notes receivable with its franchisees.

JTH HOLDING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

The Company maintains its cash and cash equivalents in bank deposit accounts, which at times may exceed federally insured limits. The Company has not experienced any losses in such accounts. The Company believes it is not exposed to any significant credit risk on its cash and cash equivalents balances.

The Company manages such risk by evaluating the financial position of the franchisee, value of the franchises, as well as the personal guarantee of the individual franchisees. At October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, there were no significant concentrations of credit risk associated with any individual franchisee or group of franchisees. The Company maintains an allowance for potential losses based on its expected collectability of the receivables, which the Company believes is adequate for its credit loss exposure.

The condensed consolidated financial statements include various estimated fair value information at October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012.

Fair value is defined as the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date. Financial assets and liabilities subject to fair value measurements on a recurring basis are classified according to a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value.

- Level 1 — quoted prices for identical assets and liabilities in active markets.
- Level 2 — quoted prices for similar assets and liabilities in active markets, quoted prices for identical or similar assets and liabilities in markets that are not active, and model-based valuations in which all significant inputs are observable in the market.
- Level 3 — unobservable inputs in which little or no market data exists, therefore requiring an entity to develop its own assumptions.

At October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, the following tables present, for each of the fair value hierarchy levels, the assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value on a recurring and nonrecurring basis (in thousands):

	October 31, 2012
	Total	Fair value measurements using
		Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assets:

Liabilities:
Recurring:
Interest rate swap agreements	$ 694	$ —	$ 694	$ —
	694	—	694	—

The Company's policy is to recognize transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy on the date of the event or change in circumstances that caused the transfer. There were no transfers into or out of level 1 or 2 recurring fair value measurements for the six months ended October 31, 2012.

Management considers accounts and notes receivable to be impaired if the amount due exceeds the fair value of the underlying office. In establishing the estimated fair value of the underlying franchise, consideration is given to the net fees of open offices and the number of unopened offices.

Management considers a customer list to be impaired if the net carrying amount exceeds the fair value of the underlying office. In establishing the fair value of a customer list, consideration is given to historical transactions involving sales of company-owned offices and the net fees of the underlying office.

The fair value of the Company's interest swap agreements is the difference between the present value of interest payments due under the current swap agreements and similar swap agreements using a market rate of interest on the date of valuation.

(12) Related Party Transactions

The Company considers directors and their affiliated companies, executive officers of the Company, and members of their immediate family to be related parties. For the six months ended October 31, 2012 and 2011, the Company repurchased common stock from related parties as follows (all transactions occurred prior to going public):

	2012	2011
Common stock repurchases:
Shares repurchased	20,000	29,000
Amount	$ 301,000	$ 435,000

At October 31, 2012 and April 30, 2012, notes receivable from related parties are as follows:

JTH HOLDING, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
Notes to Condensed Consolidated Financial Statements
October 31, 2012 and 2011 (Unaudited)

	October 31 2012	April 30, 2012
Notes receivable	$ 21,000	$ 21,000
Repayments received during the year	6,000	971,000

Interest rates on these notes approximate prevailing market rates at the time of their issuance.

(13) Commitments and Contingencies

ERC class action litigation. The Company was sued in November 2011 in federal courts in Arkansas, California, Florida and Illinois, and additional lawsuits were filed in federal courts in January 2012 in Maryland and North Carolina, in February 2012 in Wisconsin, and in May 2012 in New York and in Minnesota. All of the cases were consolidated before a single judge in federal court in the Northern District of Illinois, and in June 2012, the plaintiffs filed a new complaint in the consolidated action. The consolidated complaint alleges that an electronic refund check (ERC) represents a form of refund anticipation loan (RAL) because the taxpayer is “loaned” the tax preparation fee, and that an ERC is therefore subject to federal truth-in-lending disclosure and state law requirements regulating RALs. The plaintiffs therefore allege violations of state-specific RAL and other consumer statutes. The lawsuit purports to be a class action, and the plaintiffs allege potential damages in excess of $5 million. The Company is aware that virtually identical lawsuits have been filed against several of its competitors. The Company believes at this time a loss related to this matter is not probable; consequently the Company has not recorded a loss contingency related to this matter. The Company believes it has meritorious defenses to the claims in this case, and intends to defend the case vigorously, but there can be no assurances as to the outcome or the impact on the Company’s consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows. The consolidated case is at a very early stage.

South Carolina litigation. In November 2010, several former customers of one of the Company’s South Carolina franchisees initiated a purported class action against the Company, its Chief Executive Officer and another of the Company’s employees in the United States District Court for the District of South Carolina, in a case styled Martin v. JTH Tax, Inc. In this case, the plaintiffs allege that the employees of the Company’s franchisees fraudulently increased customer tax refunds, and that this behavior was pursuant to a plan or scheme in which the Company and its employees were involved. In this case, the plaintiffs seek damages in excess of $5 million, certification of class action status, treble damages under a claim pursuant to The Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act of 1970, punitive damages, and other damages. This case is in the early stages of the proceeding. The Company believes at this time a loss related to this matter is not probable; consequently the Company has not recorded a loss contingency related to this matter. The Company intends to defend this case vigorously, but there can be no assurances as to the outcome or the impact on the Company’s consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows.

The Company is also party to claims and lawsuits that are considered to be ordinary, routine litigation and investigations incidental to the business, including claims and lawsuits concerning the preparation of customers’ income tax returns, the fees charged to customers for various products and services, relationships with franchisees, intellectual property disputes, employment matters and contract disputes. Although the Company cannot provide assurance that it will ultimately prevail in each instance, the Company believes the amount, if any, it will be required to pay in the discharge of liabilities or settlements in these claims will not have a material adverse impact on its consolidated results of operations.

Factors that may cause such differences include, but are not limited to, the risks described under “Item 1A—Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2012 and risks described in all other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including:

- our possible inability to sustain growth at our historical pace;
- the seasonality of our business;
- our inability to secure reliable sources of the financial products we make available to our customers;
- the continued service of our senior management team;
- government regulation and oversight, including the regulation of our financial products such as electronic refund checks (“ERCs”), refund anticipation loans (“RALs”) and our Instant Cash Advance loans (“ICAs”);
- government initiatives that simplify tax return preparation, improve the timing and efficiency of processing tax returns, limit payments to tax preparers or decrease the number of tax returns filed or the size of the refunds;
- increased regulation of the products and services that we offer;
- the possible characterization of ERCs as a form of loan;
- changes in the financial products offered to our customers that make our services less attractive to customers or more costly to us;
- our ability to maintain relationships with our financial product service providers;
- our ability and the ability of our franchisees to comply with regulatory requirements;
- changes in our franchise sale model that may reduce our revenue;
- the ability of our franchisees to open new territories and operate them successfully;
- the ability of our franchisees to generate sufficient revenue to repay their indebtedness to us;
- our exposure to litigation;

- our ability and our franchisees' ability to protect customers' personal information;
- an ability to access the credit markets and satisfy our covenants to lenders;
- challenges in deploying accurate tax software in a timely way each tax season;
- competition in the tax preparation market;
- our reliance on technology systems, including the deployment of our NextGen project, and electronic communications; and
- other factors, including the risk factors discussed in this quarterly report.

Potential investors and other readers are urged to consider these factors carefully in evaluating the forward-looking statements and are cautioned not to place undue reliance on the forward-looking statements. ### Overview

We are one of the leading providers of tax preparation services in the United States and Canada. As measured by both the number of returns prepared and the number of retail offices, we are the third largest and fastest growing national retail preparer of individual tax returns in the United States and the second largest retail preparer of individual tax returns in Canada. From 2001 through 2012, we have grown the number of U.S. tax returns prepared in our offices from approximately 137,000 to nearly 1.8 million. Our tax preparation services and related financial products are offered primarily through franchised locations, although we operate a very limited number of company-owned offices each tax season. All of the offices are operated under the Liberty Tax Service brand.

From 2001 through 2012, we grew our number of tax offices from 508 to nearly 4,200. We and our franchisees operated 3,920 offices in the United States during the 2012 tax season, a 9.2% increase over the 2011 tax season, when we operated 3,590 offices, which was itself a 9.3% increase over the number of offices operated in the 2010 tax season. Approximately 59% of our revenue for fiscal year 2012 was derived from franchise fees, royalties and advertising fees, and for this reason, continued growth in our franchise locations is viewed by management as the key to our future performance.

Our revenue primarily consists of the following components:

- Franchise Fees: We earn franchisee fees from our franchisees and area developers ("ADs"). Our standard franchise fee per territory is $40,000 and we offer our franchisees flexible structures and financing options for franchise fees. We recognize franchise fees, net of a provision for franchise fee refunds, when our obligations to prepare the franchise for operation have been substantially completed. When we finance franchise fees, we record the franchise fees as deferred revenue until the franchisee has made a significant financial commitment (payment of 20% of the franchise fee) and met certain other criteria. However, in 2011 we introduced a new "zero franchise fee" option that forgoes the initial franchise fee payment in favor of a higher royalty rate. Our franchise fees for AD areas vary based on our assessment of the revenue potential of each AD area, and also depend on the performance of any existing franchisees within the AD area being sold. Our ADs generally receive 50% of the franchise fees derived from territories located in their area.

In October 2012, we announced that we would have the opportunity to offer tax preparation services in more than 300 Walmart stores beginning in the 2013 tax season. Because this announcement occurred relatively late in the second quarter, the sales process for current franchisees who might consider expanding into an nearby Walmart location was delayed and our ability to close a significant number of those territories by the end of the fiscal second quarter was adversely affected. In addition, we have concluded that more of our expanding franchisees are choosing our “rent to own” option for Walmart locations, and we expect this trend to delay the recognition of these territory sales to the fourth quarter of fiscal 2013, if the franchisee elects to purchase the territory at that time. Moreover, we anticipate that because many of the Walmart stores are in rural areas that are more difficult to sell, we will operate more company stores in the 2013 tax season than in prior years. However, from a longer term perspective, we believe that opening and operating these Walmart stores in hard to sell areas will give us the opportunity to sell these territories sooner than would otherwise have been possible and allow us to expand our footprint into these rural areas more quickly.

- Royalties: We earn royalty revenue from our franchisees. Our franchise agreement requires franchisees to pay us a base royalty equal to 14% of the franchisee’s tax preparation revenue, subject to certain specified minimums. Franchisees acquiring territories under our “zero franchise fee” alternative are required to pay us franchise royalties of 25% through their first five tax seasons, and thereafter 14% of their tax preparation revenue. Over time, as our offices continue to “season,” we expect that our growth in revenue from royalties will continue to outpace our growth in revenue from franchise fees. We also expect to see steadier growth from our royalty revenue, but our franchise fee revenue may decrease if franchisees choose our zero franchise fee alternative. Our ADs generally receive 50% of the royalties derived from territories located in their area.
- Advertising Fees: We earn advertising fee revenue from our franchisees. Our franchise agreement requires all franchisees to pay us an advertising fee of 5% of the franchisee’s tax preparation revenue, which we use primarily to fund collective advertising efforts.
- Financial Products: We offer two types of financial products: “refund transfer” products, such as ERCs, which involve providing a means by which a customer may receive his or her refund more quickly and conveniently, and refund-based loans, such as RALs and ICAs. We earn fees from the use of these financial products. Because the remaining bank that offered RALs ceased to do so after the end of the 2012 tax season, we no longer expect to be able to offer RALs through banks and other federally-insured financial institutions, and our ability to offer refund-based loans may therefore be more limited than in the past. However, we believe the negative effect of fewer refund-based loans will be offset by three factors. First, we expect to be able to offer an ICA loan in 25 or more states during the 2013 tax season, and are seeking alternative credit-based financial products that may be offered in some of the states where the ICA will not be available. Second, we believe that most customers who previously would have obtained loans will elect to purchase a refund transfer product (such as an ERC), and that the continued availability of these products will enable us to experience similar financial product “attachment rates” as in prior years. Third, as we continue to offer more of our financial products through our JTH Financial subsidiary, we expect to be able to realize more of the fee income associated with financial products (although we will also incur greater expenses in connection with offering these products).
- Tax Preparation Fees: We also earn tax preparation revenue directly from both the operation of company-owned offices and the provision of tax preparation services through our eSmartTax online product.

Total revenues	$ 13,661	$ 14,075	$ 414	3%	$ 8,793	$ 7,289	$ (1,504)	(17)%

Total revenues increased by 3% in the first six months of fiscal 2013, compared to fiscal 2012, due to the following factors:

- A 22% increase in interest income, reflecting additional lending we made to our franchisees and ADs for the acquisition of territories and areas and to our franchisees for working capital purposes.
- An 80% increase in tax preparation fees primarily due to an increase in the number of company-owned offices.
- A 62% increase in financial products revenue primarily attributable to originating more financial products through our subsidiary, JTH Financial, rather than through third parties.

The increases in interest income, tax preparation fees and financial product revenues were partially offset by a 25% decrease in territory franchise fees largely due to a decline in franchise sales. In the first six months of fiscal 2013, 174 franchise territories were sold and recognized compared to 206 in the prior year period (79 of the sales were under our zero franchise fee model in 2013, compared to 80 such sales in 2012).

Total revenues decreased by 17% in the three months ended October 31, 2012, compared to the same quarter in fiscal 2012, due to the following factors:

- A 74% decrease in area developer franchise fees due to recognizing one AD area sale in the quarter ended October 31, 2012, while six were recognized in the same period last year.
- A 12% decrease in territory franchise fees largely due to a decline in franchise sales. In the second quarter of fiscal 2013, 141 franchise territories were sold and recognized compared to 159 in the prior year period (69 of the sales were under our zero franchise fee model in 2013, compared to 68 such sales in 2012).

The decreases in franchise fees for territory and area developer sales were partially offset by the following:

- A 15% increase in interest income, reflecting additional lending we made to our franchisees and ADs for the acquisition of territories and areas and to our franchisees for working capital purposes.
- A 153% increase in tax preparation fees primarily due to an increase in the number of company-owned offices.

Operating expenses. The table below details the amounts and changes in our operating expenses for the three and six months ended October 31, 2012 and 2011.

Our total operating expenses increased by $6.4 million and by $2.6 million in the first six months and the second quarter of fiscal 2013, compared to the same period of fiscal 2012, representing a 23% increase and 17% increase, respectively. The largest components of these increases were:

- A 17% and 16%, respectively, increase in employee compensation and benefits primarily attributable to the addition of corporate personnel to support the anticipated growth in the number of offices and our becoming a public company.
- A 41% and 39% increase, respectively, in advertising expenses as we increased our advertising spending in order to target new franchisees, as well as the timing of our consumer advertising as we strive to maintain contact with our customers in the off-season.
- A 28% and 14% increase, respectively, in general and administrative expenses, caused primarily by the following:
  - A $742,000 and $198,000 increase in professional fees due to increased litigation costs related to current litigation and additional costs associated with becoming a public company.
  - A $523,000 and $185,000 increase in bad debt expense based on our assessment of the appropriate level of the allowance for doubtful accounts.
  - A $491,000 and $253,000 increase in rent and utilities expense, largely related to an increase in the number of company-owned offices.
  - A $317,000 increase, for the six months of fiscal 2013, in travel and entertainment expense for costs primarily related to attracting new franchisees and training existing and new franchisees.
  - A $252,000 and $202,000 increase in computer supply and software expense for subscriptions to software as a service related to the use of electronic signatures for customer documents.

Other Items. There were no material changes in our other income between the first six months and second quarter of fiscal 2013 and the same periods of fiscal 2012. We recorded income tax benefits in the first six months of fiscal 2013 and 2012 (effective rates of 39.7% and 39.5%, respectively, for the six-month periods and of 39.5% and 38.5%, respectively, for the three-months periods). However, because of the seasonal nature of our business, we expect that the losses we incur for the first three quarters of a fiscal year will be more than offset by the results of our fiscal fourth quarter.

Net loss. For the first six months of fiscal 2013, as compared to 2012, our net loss increased by 38%, reflecting an increase in operating expenses of 23%, which more than offset our 3% increase in revenues. For the second quarter of fiscal 2013, as compared to 2012, our net loss increased by 55%, reflecting an increase in operating expenses of 17% and a decrease in revenues of 17%.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Overview of factors affecting our liquidity

Seasonality of cash flow. Our tax return preparation business is seasonal, and most of our revenues and cash flow are generated during the period from early February through April 30. Following each tax season, from May 1 through early February of the following year, we rely significantly on excess operating cash flow from the previous season, from cash payments made by franchisees and ADs who purchase new territories and areas prior to the next tax season and make cash payments in connection with those purchases, and on the use of our credit facility to fund our operating expenses and invest in the future growth of our business. Our business has historically generated a strong operating cash flow from operations on an annual basis. We devote a significant portion of our cash resources during the off season to finance the working capital needs of our franchisees. We have also been incurring significant expenditures in the development of our NextGen project.

Credit facility. Our credit facility, entered into effective April 30, 2012, consists of a $25 million term loan and a $105 million revolving credit facility. The term loan amortizes on a quarterly basis and matures on April 30, 2017, and the revolving loan also expires on April 30, 2017. The outstanding borrowings on both loans accrue interest at an adjusted one month LIBOR rate plus a margin that varies from 1.50% to 2.25% (an increase of 25 basis points from our previous revolving credit facility), depending on our leverage ratio. The interest rate at October 31, 2012 was 1.84% as compared to 1.87% at April 30, 2012. This indebtedness is collateralized by substantially all of our assets, including the assets of our subsidiaries.

Under our credit facility, we are subject to a number of covenants that could potentially restrict how we carry out our business, or that require us to meet certain periodic tests in the form of financial covenants. The restrictions we consider to be material to our ongoing business include the following:

- We must satisfy a “leverage ratio” test that is based on our outstanding indebtedness at the end of each fiscal quarter.
- We must satisfy a “fixed charge coverage ratio” test at the end of each fiscal quarter.
- We must reduce the outstanding balance under our revolving loan to zero for a period of at least 45 consecutive days each fiscal year.

In addition, were we to experience certain types of changes in control affecting continuing control of us by our CEO, John Hewitt, or certain changes to the composition of our Board of Directors, we might become subject to an event of default under our credit facility, which may result in the acceleration of our obligations under that facility.

Our credit facility also contains customary affirmative and negative covenants, including limitations on indebtedness, limitations on liens and negative pledges, limitations on investments, loans and acquisitions, limitations on mergers, consolidations, liquidations and dissolutions, limitations on sales of assets, limitations on certain restricted payments and limitations on transactions with affiliates, among others.

Franchisee lending and potential exposure to credit loss. A substantial portion of our cash flow during the year is utilized to provide funding to our franchisees and ADs. At October 31, 2012, our total balance of loans to franchisees and ADs for working capital and equipment loans, representing cash amounts we had advanced to the franchisees and ADs, was $30.0 million. In addition, at that date, our franchisees and ADs together owed us an additional $84.2 million for unpaid amounts owed to us, typically representing the unpaid purchase price of new territories (in the case of franchisees) and areas comprising clusters of territories (in the case of ADs), and other amounts owed to us for royalties and other unpaid amounts for which our franchisees and ADs had outstanding payment obligations.

Table of Contents

Our actual exposure to potential credit loss associated with franchisee loans is less than the aggregate amount of those loans because a significant portion of those loans are to franchisees located within AD areas, where our AD is ultimately entitled to a substantial portion of the franchise fee and royalty revenues represented by some of these loans. For this reason, the amount of indebtedness of franchisees to us is effectively offset in part by our related payable obligation to ADs with respect to franchise fees and royalties. As of October 31, 2012, the total indebtedness of franchisees to us where the franchisee is located in an AD area was $67.8 million, but $15.7 million of that indebtedness represents amounts ultimately payable to ADs as their share of franchise fees and royalties.

Our franchisees make electronic return filings for their customers utilizing our facilities. Our franchise agreements allow us to obtain repayment of amounts due to us from our franchisees through an electronic fee intercept program before our franchisees receive net proceeds of the tax preparation and other fees they have charged to their customers on tax returns associated with financial products. Therefore, we are able to minimize the nonpayment risk associated with amounts outstanding to franchisees by obtaining direct electronic payment in the ordinary course throughout the tax season. Our credit risk associated with amounts outstanding to ADs is also mitigated by our electronic fee intercept program, which enables us to obtain repayments of amounts that would otherwise flow through to ADs as their share of franchisee fee and royalty payments, to the extent of an AD's indebtedness to us.

The unpaid amounts owed to us from our franchisees and ADs are collateralized by the underlying franchise or area and are guaranteed by the respective franchisee or AD and the related owner(s). Accordingly, to the extent a franchisee or AD does not satisfy its payment obligations to us, we may repossess the underlying franchise or area in order to resell it in the future. At October 31, 2012, we had an investment in impaired accounts and notes receivable and related interest receivable of approximately $8.5 million. We consider accounts and notes receivable to be impaired if the amounts due exceed the fair value of the underlying franchise and estimate an allowance for doubtful accounts based on that excess. Amounts due include the recorded value of the accounts and notes receivable reduced by the allowance for uncollected interest, amounts due to ADs for their portion of franchisee receivables, any related deferred revenue and amounts owed to the franchisee or AD by us. In establishing the fair value of the underlying franchise, we consider net fees of open territories and the number of unopened territories. At October 31, 2012, we have recorded an allowance for doubtful accounts for accounts and notes receivable of $7.3 million. There were no significant concentrations of credit risk with any individual franchisee or AD as of October 31, 2012, and we believe that our allowance for doubtful accounts as of October 31, 2012 is adequate for our existing loss exposure. We closely monitor the performance of our franchisees and ADs, and will adjust our allowances as appropriate if we determine that the existing allowances are inadequate to cover estimated losses.

ICA guarantees. During the 2012 tax season, we continued a relationship with a non-bank lender to offer ICAs to customers in a limited number of our offices. We expect further expansion of this program in subsequent tax seasons. In exchange for the payment of a fee, we guarantee any loan losses incurred by the third party lender from the loans to our customers. These loans are typically made with the expectation that they will only be outstanding for a few weeks. We are obligated to repurchase these loans if they are not repaid within 60 days. We expect the number of these loans made and the balance outstanding to peak early in the tax season, but significantly decrease by the end of February. In addition, we may repurchase loans because of the 60 day requirement, and subsequently collect a portion of the loan balances. During the 2012 tax season, we incurred $1.1 million in losses related to those loans, which represented 2.4% of the ICA loans made during the 2012 tax season.

Dividends. We have never declared or paid a cash dividend on our capital stock. Although we may pay cash dividends in the future, the payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend, among other things, on our earnings, capital requirements and financial condition. Our ability to pay dividends will also be subject to compliance with the financial covenants that are contained in our credit facility and may be restricted by any future indebtedness that we incur or issuances of preferred stock.

Sources and uses of cash

Operating activities. In the first six months of fiscal 2013, we used $7.3 million more cash from operating activities compared to the first six months of fiscal 2012. Some of the items that contributed to the increase in our negative operating cash flow for the first six months of fiscal 2013 compared to the prior year include:

Table of Contents

- Higher general and administrative payments of $3.0 million due to an increase of $2.1 million for professional fees, rent and utilities expense, travel expense and computer and software expense as well as the prepayment of $1.0 million more of expenses in the first six months of fiscal 2013 as compared to fiscal 2012.
- Higher payroll related payments of $2.5 million primarily attributable to the addition of corporate personnel to support the anticipated growth in the number of offices and our becoming a public company.
- Lower royalty and advertising royalty receipts of $1.5 million primarily due to an increase in franchisees electing to refinance their accounts receivable with a note receivable.
- Higher advertising payments of $1.2 million as we increased our advertising targeting new franchisees and altered the timing of our consumer advertising to better maintain contact with our customers in the off-season.

Some factors that partially offset the uses of cash discussed above were:

- Higher financial product receipts of $507,000 due to the timing of collections of amounts accrued at each fiscal year end
- Higher interest receipts of $359,000 due to additional lending we made to our franchisees and ADs for the acquisition of territories and areas and to our franchisees for working capital purposes.

Investing activities. In the first six months of fiscal 2013, we utilized $5.0 million more cash from investing activities compared to the same period in fiscal 2012. The increase was largely attributable to the following factors:

- An increase of $3.0 million for the purchase of equity securities in a strategic partner.
- An increase of $2.2 million in the issuance of operating loans to our franchisees (including ADs), net of payments received on operating loans.
- An increase of $325,000 in the purchase of assets from franchisees and ADs mainly attributable to the repurchase of ten AD territories during the first six months of fiscal 2013 compared to only six AD repurchases in the same period of fiscal 2012.
- An increase in purchases of property and equipment of $418,000, primarily related to the purchase of additional office space to support the planned expansion of JTH Financial.

The above uses of cash were offset partially by an increase of $852,000 in the proceeds from the sale of customer lists and other assets, due to AD sales that occurred in the first six months of fiscal 2013, but not fiscal 2012.

Financing activities. In the first six months of fiscal 2013, we generated $6.3 million less cash from financing activities compared to the same period of fiscal 2012, primarily because our net borrowings under our revolving credit facility decreased $8.0 million. This was primarily because our new $25 million term loan was outstanding at April 30, 2012, and the proceeds from the term loan reduced our need to draw on the line of credit in the first six months of fiscal 2013 to the same extent as in the period of fiscal 2012. In addition to this decrease in borrowings, we received $1.6 million more in proceeds from the exercise of stock options than in the previous fiscal year, and engaged in $792,000 less in stock repurchases as we temporarily stopped our repurchase program during the period before we became a public company.

Future cash needs and capital requirements

Operating cash flow needs. We believe that our credit facility entered into on April 30, 2012, including the additional borrowing of up to $70 million permitted under that facility, will be sufficient to support our cash flow needs.

Table of Contents

At October 31, 2012, using the leverage ratio applicable under our loan covenants at the end of that quarter, our maximum unused borrowing capacity was $32.4 million. Under our credit facility, our leverage ratio requirement at the end of each fiscal quarter is 3:1, except at January 31, 2013, when it increases to 4:1.

Our credit facility also contains a requirement that we reduce the balance of our revolving loan to zero for a period of at least 45 consecutive days each fiscal year. However, because our term loan will remain outstanding during that 45 day period, and given our historic cash flow experience at the end and at the beginning of each fiscal year, we do not anticipate that the unavailability of our revolving loan during that 45 day period each fiscal year will adversely affect our cash flow. We have already satisfied this requirement for fiscal 2013.

We believe several factors will affect our cash flow in future periods, including the following:

- The extent to which we extend additional financing to our franchisees and ADs, beyond the levels of prior periods.
- The extent and timing of our expenditures related to our NextGen project. Our NextGen project is an integral part of our determination to deliver an improved level of service to our franchisees. In addition to integrating our online and retail-based tax preparation software, we expect the NextGen project, when fully deployed, to improve the ability of our franchisees to comply with financial information protection requirements by moving most tax preparation information to a secure centralized platform, and to provide web-based support services in a way that will be both more accessible to our franchisees and their employees and less expensive for us to provide.
- The cash flow effect of selling franchises under our new program allowing franchisees to purchase additional territories without making any cash down payment.
- The offsetting impact of the higher royalty rates we receive from franchisees who elect to purchase territories under the no down payment plan.
- The extent to which we engage in stock repurchases. In August 2012, our Board of Directors approved an increase in our authorization to repurchase shares, permitting repurchases of up to $5.0 million of our Class A common stock without an expiration date on the authorization. These repurchases may be conducted through open market transactions or as privately negotiated transactions. As of October 31, 2012, we had utilized $570,000 of this authorization.
- Our ability to generate fee and other income related to financial products in light of regulatory pressures on us and our business partners.
- The extent to which we repurchase AD areas in order to allow us to receive a full stream of royalties from the franchisees in the AD areas in future periods.
- The extent, if any, to which our Board of Directors elects to declare dividends on our common stock.
- The extent to which we finance financial products offered by JTH Financial.

Effect of our credit facility covenants on our future performance. Our credit facility, which matures on April 30, 2017, imposes several restrictive covenants, consistent with the covenants that applied under the revolving credit facility it replaced. The credit facility contains a covenant that requires us to maintain a “leverage ratio” of not more than 4:1 at the end of each fiscal quarter ending January 31, and a ratio of not more than 3:1 at the end of each other fiscal quarter. The higher permitted leverage ratio at the end of the January 31 quarter reflects the fact that as of that date, we have typically extended significant credit to our franchisees for working capital and other needs that is not reflected in revenue that we receive from our franchisees until the period beginning in February each year.

At October 31, 2012 our leverage ratio was 2.04:1. Using the 3:1 test, our available borrowing capacity under the revolving credit facility at October 31, 2012 was $32.4 million. The leverage ratio is measured only at the end of each fiscal quarter, and so there may be times at which we exceed the quarter-end leverage ratio during the quarter, which we are permitted to do provided that our leverage ratio is within the allowable ratio at quarter-end.

We also are obligated to satisfy a fixed charge coverage ratio test which requires that ratio to be not less than 1.50:1 at the end of every fiscal quarter. At October 31, 2012, our fixed charge coverage ratio was 3.68:1.

We were in compliance with all of our debt covenants as of October 31, 2012. We expect to be able to manage our cash flow and our operating activities in such a manner that we will continue to be able to satisfy our obligations under the revolving credit facility for the remainder of the term of that facility.

As noted above, although we are subject under our credit facility to a requirement that we reduce the balance of our revolving loan to zero for a period of at least 45 consecutive days each fiscal year, because of the addition of a term loan into our credit facility, we do not believe that new requirement will affect our cash flow or future performance.

Seasonality of Operations

Given the seasonal nature of the tax return preparation business, we have historically generated and expect to continue to generate most of our revenues during the period from January 1 through April 30. In fiscal 2012 we earned 84% of our revenues during this period. We historically operate at a loss through the first eight months of each fiscal year, during which we incur costs associated with preparing for the upcoming tax season.

Off Balance Sheet Arrangements

We are a party to interest rate swap agreements that allow us to manage fluctuations in cash flow resulting from changes in the interest rate on our credit facility. These swaps effectively change the variable-rate of our credit facility into a fixed rate credit facility. Under the swaps, we receive a variable interest rate based on the one month LIBOR and pay a fixed interest rate of 2.49% or 2.52% under the different swaps. The notional amounts of the swaps vary from $10 million to $70 million per month, depending on our forecasted seasonal borrowings. At October 31, 2012, the fair value of our interest rate swaps was a liability of $466,000 and was included in accounts payable and accrued expenses.

We also enter into forward contracts to eliminate exposure related to foreign currency fluctuations in connection with the short-term advances we make to our Canadian subsidiary in order to fund personal income tax refund discounting for our Canadian operations. At October 31, 2012, there were no forward contracts outstanding, but we expect to enter into forward contracts in the future during the Canadian tax season.

QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

There have been no material changes in our market risks from those reported at April 30, 2012 in our Annual Report on Form 10-K.

ITEM 4

CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Based upon an evaluation of the effectiveness of disclosure controls and procedures, JTH Holding, Inc.'s Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO) have concluded that as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q our disclosure controls and procedures as defined under Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) were effective to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in our Exchange Act reports is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified by the Securities and Exchange Commission and is accumulated and communicated to management, including the CEO and CFO, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

During our most recent fiscal quarter, there has not occurred any change in our internal control over financial reporting that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

PART II

ITEM 1 LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

There have been no material developments with respect to the legal proceedings reported in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2012 since the date of that report.

ITEM 1A RISK FACTORS

There have been no material changes in our risk factors from those reported at April 30, 2012 in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended April 30, 2012 and from those reported for the quarter ended July 31, 2012 in our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q.

ITEM 2 UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES AND USE OF PROCEEDS

There were no issuances of our Class A Common Stock during the quarter ended October 31, 2012.

PURCHASES OF EQUITY SECURITIES BY THE ISSUER AND AFFILIATED PURCHASERS

Stock repurchase activity during the three months ended October 31, 2012 was as follows:

Period	Total Number of Shares Purchased(1)	Average Price Paid per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Plan	Maximum Value of Shares that may Be Purchased Under the Plan(2)
August 1 through August 31, 2012	—	$ —	—	$ 5,000,000
September 1 through September 30, 2012	15,667	$ 10.04	15,667	$ 4,842,762
October 1 through October 31, 2012	30,937	$ 13.34	30,937	$ 4,429,942
Total	46,604	$ 12.23	46,604

(1) During the three months ended October 31, 2012, we did not purchase any of our shares other than through open market purchases under the publicly announced plan described in the following footnote.

(2) On August 29, 2012 we announced that our Board of Directors approved a $5 million authorization for share repurchases, and did not specify an expiration date for that share repurchase program. The first repurchase under this plan took place on September 10, 2012.
